Subject: Fwd: Exceptions to citations

Please take a look at this ammendment. It goes against all we are trying to do here.

Director Michael Rallings,
Memphis Police Department

(c) No citation shall be issued under the provisions of this section if:

- (1) The person arrested requires medical examination or medical care, or if the person is unable to care for the person's own safety;
- (2) There is a reasonable likelihood that the offense would continue or resume, or that persons or property would be endangered by the arrested person;
- (3) The person arrested cannot or will not offer satisfactory evidence of identification, including the providing of a field-administered fingerprint or thumbprint which a peace officer may require to be affixed to any citation;
- (4) The prosecution of the offense for which the person was arrested, or of another offense, would thereby be jeopardized;

- (5) A reasonable likelihood exists that the arrested person will fail to appear in court;
- (6) The person demands to be taken immediately before a magistrate or refuses to sign the citation;
- (7) The person arrested is so intoxicated that the person could be a danger to the person's own self or to others;
or
- (8) There are one (1) or more outstanding arrest warrants for the person.
